

Jacob trained at The MET on the musical theatre course before he attended Laine Theatre Arts, graduating in 2014.

Since then he has been very lucky to have worked consistently in the industry.

Jacob started his professional career straight out of college appearing in 'Chicago' as Harry & Aaron, onboard the largest ship in the world at the time, Royal Caribbean's 'Allure of the Seas'. In 2016, he then had the pleasure of working with Arlene Phillips and Sam Cassidy on a workshop for '27 The Musical', and ending the year as a featured dancer in the smash hit pantomime 'Cinderella' at the London Palladium (the first pantomime to be performed back at the Palladium in 30 years). He then packed his bags to move to Germany where he started 2017 joining the cast of 'Tanz der Vampire' as swing, cover Koukol/Black Vampire and Assistant Dance Captain. This show then took him on a tour of Germany, ending in 2018. Enjoying life in Germany, Jacob was then cast in 'Bat Out Of Hell - Das Musical' as swing and Dance Captain. After almost 3 years away from the UK, it was time to return home.

Most recently, Jacob has just finished performing in 'We Will Rock You' on the UK & Ireland Tour as swing, second cover Brit, Dance Captain and Associate Choreographer. Jacob is very passionate about theatre, choreographing and performing, and loves inspiring the new generation to work hard for their dreams.
